VITA.

Born and reared on a farm in Otoe County, Nebraska, of German ancestry, country school grade education, taught the same one year. Entered the State University preparatory course and University School of Music in 1894, with piano as a specialty, continuing the latter throughout the college course: entered the Lincoln High School in 1895, transferred to the academy the following year, entered the University in 1897, graduated from the conservatory in 1899, and continued post graduate work in piano, taking up private piano teaching; graduated from the University in 1903, taught home school again, 1903-04; took six months correspondence course in harmony with Dr. Percy Goetchins, New York City, 1903; began a correspondence course in counterpoint with A. J. Goodrich, New York City, 1903-04.

Started on Master's degree at the University of Nebraska, 1904, taking up composition under Mortimer Wilson and piano at the conservatory. Spent the year of 1905-06 in California studying composition and orchestration by correspondence with Mr. Wilson and counterpoint with A. J. Goodrich, also by correspondence.

Moved to Lincoln, 1906, continued work on Master's degree with composition and orchestration under Mr. Wilson. Took Master's degree in 1907 in the departments of education and American history; took State Teachers' Certificate in German, French and history; title of thesis, "Music in the Public Schools of the United States."

Taught piano privately 1907-12, while continuing study of piano, taking up china painting in the School of Fine Arts.

Registered in the University Engineering course during the summers of 1909, 10, 11, 12, as special student in furniture and cabinet work, and wood carving.

Entered Lincoln Musical College in 1912 as private pupil of Aloys Kremer, taking up composition and orchestration under Max Kidder in 1913.

Superintended practice work and chorus training in Parochial High School of the city.

Began study of Doctor's degree the summer of 1913, in education and philosophy.

Went to New York City fall of 1913, took up full work in normal school music, Teachers' College, and in Columbia Chair of Music. Took piano with Sigismond Stojowski, and work in wood carving in Columbia shops.

Summer study of 1914 in Columbia with philosophy under Dr. Washburn and Dr. Woodworth and piano with Madam Conrad.

Spent month of July visiting the high schools of New York City, Mount Vernon, and Brooklyn, and in studying conditions of settlement work in the slums.
