

INFORMATION TO USERS

This dissertation copy was prepared from a negative microfilm created and inspected by the school granting the degree. We are using this film without further inspection or change. If there are any questions about the content, please write directly to the school. The quality of this reproduction is heavily dependent upon the quality of the original material.

The following explanation of techniques is provided to help clarify notations which may appear on this reproduction.

1. Manuscripts may not always be complete. When it is not possible to obtain missing pages, a note appears to indicate this.
2. When copyrighted materials are removed from the manuscript, a note appears to indicate this.
3. Oversize materials (maps, drawings and charts are photographed by sectioning the original, beginning at the upper left hand corner and continuing from left to right in equal sections with small overlaps.

MASTER OF ARTS

Department of Art

THE UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS AT EL PASO

December 1991

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Completing the requirements for Master of Arts degree could not have been accomplished without the guidance of the faculty of the University of Texas at El Paso. Over the years, I have been grateful for the assistance of the late Robert J. Massey, Sally Bishop Segal, Mark A. Perlman, Rachel R. Thieves, Elizabeth Jones and James G. Quinnan, all of the Department of Art. I wish to particularly thank, Professors Segal and Kenneth K. Bailey, a Professor Emeritus of History who served as members of my Master of Arts degree committee, and to acknowledge with gratitude the invaluable assistance of James G. Quinnan.
